Delta State

Vice President of Student Affairs

"Wayne Blansett is a true Delta State Statesman. Since his arrival on campus as a freshman in the seventies, Wayne worked tirelessly to promote and improve every aspect of the university. He is a loyal, caring friend who has everything in the proper perspective—faith, family, Delta State, community, and friends.

Dr. Wayne Blansett

It is with great pleasure The Broom 2006 staff announces the dedication of this year's annual to Dr. Wayne Blansett. A native of Houston, Miss., Blansett is a 1973 Delta State University alumnus, with a B.S.E. in Social Science. As an active undergraduate, he was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha Social Fraternity, Omicron Delta Kappa and the Outstanding Men of America. He earned a M.Ed. in Guidance and Counseling in 1974, and an Ed.D. in Professional Studies with an emphasis in curriculum and supervision in 1988. With over 30 years of service to the University, Blansett began his term as the Assistant Dean of Students in 1975, becoming the Vice President of Student Affairs in 1991.

"He is a great leader who loves his family, his church, his work, and his community," said Elsie Lynn Ervin, Director of Housing & Residence Life at DSU. A church elder and deacon of Covenant Presbyterian Church, Blansett holds religion and family dear. He is married to the former Diane Woods, Director of the Academic Support Program and instructor of Mathematics at Delta State. The couple has two children, Melanie and Brian, and recently welcomed their first grandchild, Anna Woods.

Known by many simply as "Dr. B," it is apparent to all who come in contact with him just how much of a people-person he is. "I think there are countless numbers of students who can attribute their success at Delta State to Dr. Blansett's work," said Jason Umfress, assistant to Blansett and Director of Career Services & Placement. "He is one of the most professional administrators I've ever had the pleasure of working with. In addition to being my supervisor, he's also a mentor and my friend." Thank you, Dr. B for your service and encouraging smile that brightens our hearts.

Brown Bag Luncheon

Meet & Greet

The Brown Bag Luncheon is an event in which a select group of Delta State University students attend a legislative meeting in Jackson. This annual event takes place every spring semester. Students who attend this luncheon have the opportunity to tour the capitol building and sit in an actual meeting with county and state legislatures. This year's topic of discussion was voting on the budget for the state of Mississippi. Students also have the opportunity to have discussions with their county representatives and state legislatures with their concerns about their hometowns and Delta State.

Dear DSU Friends,

Yearbooks are symbols that students, faculty, and staff have come together into a community dedicated to learning, research, and service for the benefit of the larger society that it is our privilege to serve. We have worked in classrooms, laboratories, offices, conference rooms, and libraries. We have enjoyed social and cultural activities at the student center, residence halls, performance venues, and athletic facilities. Our time was well spent.

This publication also means that DSU's 80th academic year is concluding, and I join all of you in feeling pride and satisfaction in the accomplishments of 2005/06. Thanks to everyone who contributed to the memories we will carry with us.

To those who are graduating, we offer our best wishes for personal and professional success. We hope that you will remember your alma mater frequently, and that your life's journey will bring you back for many visits.

Sincerely,

John M. Hilpert
President

Orientation

The Real World

Orientation 2005 began with a real life experience into Delta State University. "The Real World" theme of orientation provided transferring students and entering freshmen with a great way to meet new people, get more acquainted with campus life, and make schedules for the fall semester. A parent's orientation gave parents an insightful view of Delta State University and answered many questions about financial needs, academic expectations and what to expect from a student going to college for the first time. The first people both transferring students and freshmen met were the 2005 orientation team. These incredibly dedicated students worked hard and showed their enthusiasm for Delta State University throughout orientation. The 2005 orientation team included: Debbie Abide, Director of Orientation, Sy Runnels, Genice Anderson, Valerie Dye, Sara Farris, Scottie Fleming, Stacy Fleming, Brittany Flippo, Darby Lamb, Ashley Martin, Sulee McCarty, Lindsey Moore, Matthew Mullins, Ginger Schmitt, Tracy Scott, Chelsea Shepherd, Mallory Smith, Nakikke Wallace, and Trey Warrington.

"I loved being an orientation leader because I got to meet all of the new DSU students, tell them about Delta State, and make really good friends in the process."

The Final Walk

Graduation is an important time in every student's life. This is a time when most students end one chapter to begin a new one. Some graduates will move on into the real world and work in their perspective professions seeking out a promising career and some may decide to continue their education and go a little further. No matter what students decide to do after graduation, memories from Delta State will be forever cherished. On May 14th, in Walter Sillers Coliseum, about 437 students received degrees from Delta State University. Honorable William F. Winter, former governor of Mississippi, delivered the commencement address.

Hurricane Katrina

One of the largest and most significant events in U.S. history since the tragedy of September 11th is the arrival of Hurricane Katrina on August 29, 2005, on the southeastern part of the country.

Several regions such as southern Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, and Florida were affected the most by this storm. Many students who attend DSU are from those regions and had family members who were heavily affected with temporary power outages, gasoline shortages, damage to their property, and even loss of property.

Various organizations on the DSU campus stepped in to help victims of Hurricane Katrina. The Student Government Association and the Delta Statement co-sponsored a water drive for the disaster victims. Several Greek organizations on campus hosted clothing and food drives and collected monetary donations. Members of the Pan-Hellenic Council of DSU volunteered their time and services at the Expo Center in Cleveland. Local churches were also supportive in contributing efforts such as providing meals and shelter to those in need.

In early September, the University administration made the decision to reopen the Hugh White Residence Hall that had been closed for several years. This facility is a safe haven for Hurricane Katrina victims who made efforts to relocate to other areas.

"All things work together for the good of those who love him and are called according to his purpose." Romans 8:28

- Lauren Safley, Sophomore-Gulfport

Approximately 50 residents were housed in the residence hall, including Red Cross volunteers and a Resident Director. The residents were given a guest Okra Kard for their families in which they were provided with three meals a day in the DSU Dining Hall. Some students who attended universities in those regions affected have enrolled at DSU.

It is going to be a long road to recovery, but with the continued help of communities like Cleveland and universities like Delta State, we will reunite and be stronger than before.

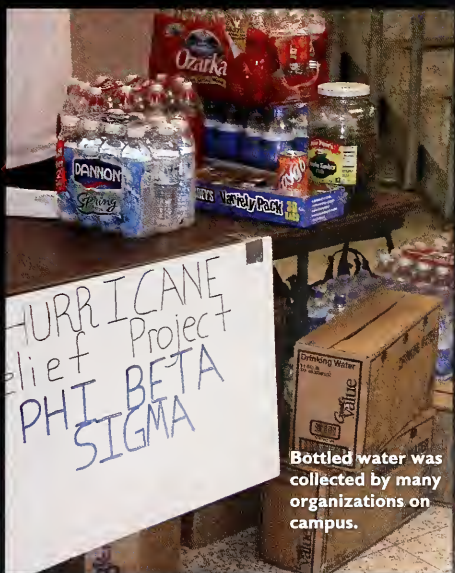

The flags were flown at half mast following the tragedy.

Gas stations quickly overflowed with nervous drivers as gas prices started to rise.

Bottled water was collected by many organizations on campus.

Greek Week

Steppin' Out

Greek Week is an event held each year, sponsored by Panhellenic, Interfraternity Council and Pan-Hellenic, where all the Greek organizations on campus come together and participate in different activities. This year there was a cook out on the Quad, Tug-of-War and, of course, the Step Show. The winner's for 2005 were the Phi Mu's and Alpha Kappa Alpha's. The Greek Banquet, held later in the week, brought the festivities to an end. At the banquet, the 2005 Greek god and goddess was presented to Louis Rocconi and Lee Claypool.

"Greek Week is not only a great way to recognize sororities and fraternities on campus, but also a way for us all to come together as one."

-Lee Chesnut, Junior

Delta Style

Pig Pickin' has been an annual event sponsored by the Delta State University Alumni Association since 1986. Family, alumni and students gather each year at Shumate Park on the first home football game to get the season off to the right start. The barbeque cook-off is always the main attraction. People can enjoy good food, fun entertainment by the marching band, the Delta Belles and the cheerleaders and see a walk through of the football team to cheer them on before the game.

Sites of Spring

Every year DSU students look forward to our annual Springfest, a day when they can goof off, play games, and hear some good music. This year's Springfest was held on April 14, 2005. The big hit this year was X-treme Air, a skydiving simulator. This adrenaline pumping ride attracted daredevils of all sorts! Other events such as Laser Tag, Old Time Photos, Ride the Bull, and the Joust made it a full day of fun. That night, George Clinton and the Parliament Funkadelic turned up the funk with an awesome show full of great music, fun characters, and showy costumes.

"It was an awesome experience. More people should take chances like that...
to do something that comes once in a lifetime."

Back in the Groove

Welcome Week is held every year to get freshman and transfer students acquainted with Delta State and to meet new people. This year's welcome week began with a motion simulator outside the Union. Tuesday a caricaturist was in the Union lobby drawing students. That night the annual Ice Cream Social was held on the second floor of the Union. Wednesday was the ODK Involvement Fair, which is where new students can learn about the various organizations on campus and sign up to become more involved. Welcome Week was wrapped up on Thursday with "Picture Yourself," where students could get their picture taken and put on an animated background.

Paintin' the Town Green and White

With the smell of barbeque and a lot more traffic in town, homecoming was felt throughout the town of Cleveland. Homecoming week was filled with fun activities that included lip singing, tug-of-war, campus clean-up, and twister on the Quad. "Torment the Tigers" was the homecoming theme for 2005, and everyone showed their spirit. All week long students worked hard on homecoming decorations for parade floats and also decorating the town of Cleveland. Different organizations from Delta State University and stores in Cleveland combined efforts in the "Paint the Town Green and White" campaign. The campaign was to get both the town of Cleveland and the University more involved. Delta Delta Delta sorority won the "Paint the Town Green and White" competition, and the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity won the homecoming float competition. Kappa Delta sorority was given the Spirit Award for being most involved during the homecoming activities. Shumate Park was an exciting place to be. Renaissance performed for the crowd of visitors, alumni, family, and students. The marching band, Delta Belles, and cheerleaders helped everyone get into the homecoming spirit.

I can't believe I'm adding the finishing touch to the yearbook! It seems like yesterday I turned on my computer for the first time and met my staff. Time has flown by and I have enjoyed every minute of it. There are a few people I would like to personally thank. I would not have been able to complete this book without Bill Moses, my advisor. Bill did anything and everything to help me to get this book finished. He also was there to keep me sane whenever my computer didn't do exactly what I wanted it to! Leslie Mullis, Assistant Editor, did so much for me and this book. I could never express how thankful I am to her for all her hard work, dedication, and friendship. Thank you so much to my staff for working extra hours to get assignments and deadlines finished. To my parents and friends, thank you for lending an ear to listen whenever I needed it most and always providing me with encouraging words to keep going.

This experience has been awesome and I have learned so much from Delta State that I will carry with me. Thanks for the great memories and I hope you enjoy the 2006 Broom.
